

Comitato economico e sociale europeo

CGIL

Brussels ■ Thursday 13
July 2017 ■ 10:00

EESC-Rue Belliard 99 Sala J.Delors 62

In memory of Bruno Trentin The future of work

Ten years after the death of Bruno Trentin, Fondazione Giuseppe Di Vittorio, the European Economic and Social Committee, and the CGIL are organizing an initiative to commemorate one of the most authoritative voices of the social and economic changes in Italy and Europe.

*“The aim of the Lisbon Treaty, the establishment of a knowledge society and new systematic relations between labour and knowledge, cannot be reduced to a question of money or one of organization. A sort of cultural revolution is required, which, through political and social initiatives, can also overcome the many inertia which stand in its way”. **

From Bruno Trentin's Lectio Doctolaris at the Ca' Foscari University of Venicea*

Admission is from 9:30 on a first come first served basis
Please bring an identity document with you
Interpreting services are provided in Italian, Spanish, French, and English

Please confirm you will attending by 18.00, 10 July,
